Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from A Descriptive Catalogue of Catlin s Indian Collection, Containing Portraits, Landscapes, Costumes, and Representations of the Manners and Customs of the North American Indians I Wish to inform the visitors to my Collection that, having some years since become fully convinced of the rapid decline and certain extinction of the numerous tribes of the North American Indians; and seeing also the vast importance and value which a full pictorial history of these interesting but dying people might be to future ages - I sat out alone, unaided and unadvised, resolved (if my life should be spared), by the aid of my brush and my pen, to rescue from oblivion so much of their primitive looks and customs as the industry and ardent enthusiasm of one lifetime could accomplish, and set them up in a Gallery unique and imperishable, for the use and benefit of future ages. I devoted eight years of my life exclusively to the accomplishment of my design, and that with more than expected success. I visited with great difficulty, and some hazard to life, forty eight tribes (residing within the United States, British, and Mexican Territories), containing about half a million of souls. I have seen them in their own villages, have carried my canvas and colours the whole way, and painted my portraits, c., from the life, as they now stand and are seen in the Gallery.
