In one letter it is said that these remedies are not cheap compounds, but a scientific treatment skillfully prepared at a great expenditure of time and trouble from rare and costly medicines, and under my personal supervision solely for this case ; that what you want is a cure, and my experience tells, that a system like my own, aiming at permanency of results is really the one worthy of your attention. These so much-needed medicines are now within your reach and it rests entirely with you to decide. If you wait it may be forever too late; but if you do your part promptly, I do not hesitate to predict a grand success ; that you know the sad consequences of delay and I honestly believe there is no such thing as fail in this case. In another of this series of letters the epileptic is told that the institute s previous experience in curing just such cases convinces it that its treatment faithfully used will prove for him, as it has for so many others, a genuine success. Reduction of the price of the C.O.D. charge is also resorted to to induce the acceptance and commencement of the treatment. Likewise, after the treatment has once been commenced the institute has a regular series of letters to mail the patient to induce him to continue with the treatment. One of the statements made in this series of letters is: I am entirely...
