The Alpha Tans at Tennessee hold a high place in the respect of the dean and faculty, and they justly deserve it, for no other fraternity on the Hill can in any way equal our record. Not an Alpha Tau has been dismissed for deficiency this year. While we have been working along scholarship lines we have not neglected other branches of college activities. In athletics we are taking an active part. McNabb and F. F. White were the respective captains of the freshman and sophomore class basketball teams. Dooley was a member of the freshman team and H. B. White represented us on the special class team. In baseball we are especially well represented, McNabb is playing second base and Ware is covering third. In Ware, Tennessee has found the best third baseman in the South, he is leading the...
