After the death of her adoptive parents, Enya travels to England to live with her uncle in Vanicy and find out more about her parents. Here she hopes to finally find a family and to start a new life, but she can't foresee that more than a mere new beginning is waiting for her. When she meets Jadon Cartwright and falls in love with him, she suddenly finds herself in the heat of a battle between the most powerful beings on earth: angels, vampire angels and a very bloodthirsty vampire clan that had been battling each other for eons. The real threat, however, is far more dangerous than any of them can foresee. The situation comes to a head, and angels and vampire angels have to cooperate and combine their powers to protect Enya. At the same time, William Strightler, an attractive man with a mysterious air enters Enya's life. What is the intent of this stranger who does not want to leave her side?.
