Home Progress: Health, Education, Ideals (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Unknown Author

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Home Progress: Health, Education, Ideals What is the relation of the physician to the home? What should it be? Unfortunately, the answers to these two questions are not the same. Preventive medicine is more important than curative medicine, but the average family will not employ a private practitioner to do the more important work. Doctors are only paid when patients are sick. How often do we hear a person say, I am not quite sick enough yet to call the doctor. The home is the place where preventive medicine can best be practised. Sanitary science, pure water-supply, sewage systems, hospitals, health boards, etc., are a vital and necessary part of scientific progress; but of infinitely greater importance is the work done in the home. Whatever progress is made in public hygiene and sanitation is of little avail as long as the family life continues to be governed by tradition, and as long as the present custom of inadequate relation with the family doctor is continued. The story of evolution in real preventive medicine is to...
