And Vicinity: Together With Genealogies of Some of the Early Families, 1903 How many who daily pass the old red school house in the Lilly district. know that it had that name long-before Binghamton was on Uncle Sam's roster of post offices? I have letters now yellow with age, directed to Chenango Point and others mailed there, which were written from the Lilly district, when Castle Creek was only Tater Creek, and it was many years later when the store and tavern were blessed with a post office and was then named Castle Creek. That name itself, is almost or quite the only remembrance left us, of the Indians who loved this lovely valley and had built the wigwam of their chief, the Castle, as the white man called it, near where the creek is lost in the bosom of the beautiful Chenango river. There used to be some old apple trees near that spot, which the Indians had planted, many many years before and could not take...
