Women and Peace Building

By Hawa Noor Mohammed

GRIN Verlag. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 40 pages. Dimensions: 8.3in. x 5.8in. x 0.3in. Studienarbeit aus dem Jahr 2009 im Fachbereich Politik - Internationale Politik - Thema: Frieden und Konflikte, Sicherheit, Otto-von-Guericke-Universitt Magdeburg (Institute of Political sciences), Veranstaltung: Gender and Conflict, Sprache: Deutsch, Abstract: The period after the Second World War saw a decline in inter-state wars as compared to intrastate wars. Many countries embarked in conflicts within their national borders, contrary to conflicts between states evidenced prior to post world war two periods. These state conflicts mostly centred on resources and poverty, translates to massive amounts of casualties, majority of them being women and children. . . . It is through womens active participation and involvement that an effective positive change can be enhanced especially on issues of Peace, which is the basis for any developmental activity. Pertaining peace matters, women contribute to Peace building in many ways although their contribution has been overlooked in the past due to the fact that it takes unconventional forms (cp: Strictland Duvuury 2003:). They constitute a large part of the society and therefore time has come for their role no longer to be under-estimated. This paper is based on an analysis...
