BiblioGov. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 40 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.1in. The United States and the Republic of the Philippines maintain close ties stemming from the U. S. colonial period (1898-1946), the bilateral security alliance, extensive military cooperation, and common strategic and economic interests. Although the United States closed its military bases in the Philippines in 1992, the two treaty allies have continued joint military activities related to counterterrorism and maritime security. The bilateral security relationship has gained prominence as a key link in the evolving U. S. foreign policy pivot or rebalancing toward Asia, and the two sides are discussing bolstering U. S. access to Philippine military facilities. On November 16, 2011, U. S. Secretary of State Hillary Clinton and Philippine Secretary of Foreign Affairs Albert F. del Rosario signed the Manila Declaration, which reaffirmed the bilateral security relationship and called for multilateral talks to resolve maritime disputes in the region. Broad U. S. policy objectives include the following: maintaining the U. S. -Philippine alliance; enhancing security and stability in the South China Sea; assisting the Armed Forces of the Philippines (AFP) in counterterrorism, maritime, modernization, and administrative reform efforts; supporting the peace process in Muslim areas of Mindanao; promoting broad-based economic growth; and helping the Philippines to develop more stable and responsive democratic institutions. The U. S. Congress has placed conditions upon a portion of U. S. military assistance to the Philippines in order to pressure the Philippine government and judicial institutions to hold the perpetrators of extrajudicial killings and violence against journalists accountable. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
