Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Special Lessons for Bible Schools This book is its own commentary. The leading thought of each verse is given to aid both student and teacher in the preparation of the lesson. In class work it is necessary for each student to have his Bible, and that each verse in the lesson should be read aloud by some one, and discussed by the class, being guided by the key-thought given in this book. In the beginning of the study of this book, it should be observed that it covers the whole plan of Salvation, showing in a most elaborate way, yet simple, everything to do to be saved and to remain saved. Therefore, when one has mastered this course he has acquired a knowledge of the greatest revelation of God to man. It is the God-given high way to eternal life. When you come to the study of prayer do not become alarmed when in the book of Psalms Christ at times instead of David is represented as praying, because the Author was very careful to find proof in the New Testament that it referred to Christ, and after finding that certain things had direct reference to Him special care was given to trace all antecedents and subsequences as far as possible that Christ might be given credit for that which pertains to Him. Illustration: While David wrote My God, my God, why hast Thou forsaken Me it was Christ speaking and not David (Psalms 22:1; Matt. 27:46). The Author sends forth this book with many prayers that it may lead a countless number into eternal life. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands...
