Born in Damascus, she started singing at an early age giving her first concert when she was five years old. Through her elementary and secondary education she held many school concerts. She started studying music at the age of nine in Damascus. After graduating from the Faculty of Business in 2002, she studied classical singing at the Damascus Conservatory, but also ventured into jazz and traditional Armenian music. On her first album Hal Asmar Ellon (2006), which reflects her style of oriental music mixed with elements of jazz, Chamamyan collaborated with the Aleppo-born instrumentalist and trumpet player Basel Rajoub.
