Excerpt from Report on the Organization of a High School for Girls, and Seminary for Female Teachers, 1840 One examination should be held each half year at the close of the term. Half yearly examinations have several advantages; - they tend to diminish the disposition on the part of pupils in the public schools, to apply for admission into the High School before they are duly prepared; to diminish the bad effects of erroneous decisions in regard to the claims of candidates for admission; and to make the exchange of pupils from class to class, in the school, more easy. With a further view to correct errors in admitting pupils not properly qualified, I would propose that for the first six months, those admitted, should be on probation; the parents to withdraw them, if found deficient in preparation or in maturity of mind, and their places to be returned to them, if desired, in the public school from which they came. The details of the manner and time of conducting these examinations, and the notices of their...

Reviews

An exceptional pdf and the typeface utilized was fascinating to read through. It can be written in straightforward words and phrases instead of confusing. I am just quickly could possibly get a delight of looking at a written ebook.
 -- Prof. Arlie Bogan

It is a single of the best book. This is for those who state there had not been a well worth reading through. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
