Michael Crichton meets Hans Christian Anderson in this romantic thriller with the brains of science fiction and the heart of a fairy tale. Kirkus Reviews says: Canter once again demonstrates his first-rate ear for dialogue, as well as a knack for nonstop pacing and a thoroughly convincing scientific grounding. the book's large amount of exposition-on everything from nanotechnology to cetacean biology-is smoothly integrated into the fast-paced narrative. Confidently told sci-fi sure to reel in adventure fans. Gen is a teen-age woman. She is also a bio-warfare research project, designed by Col. Jack Eberhard. Born at Redstone Military Laboratories inside a quarantine unit rated Biohazard Level Four, Gen's body harbors billions of microscopic organisms that have mutated from her genetically altered cells. The tiny entities in Gen's tissues control life at the molecular level and Eberhard weekly tests their ability to heal the simulated combat wounds he inflicts on her. When a deadly threat forces Gen to escape the lab, she discovers that her marvelous power to reconstruct...
