C., August, 1846 The Principals of the School have been, themselves, induced to believe that, in an ordinary course of circumstances, they could nowhere else have procured so eligible and inviting a property for a School establishment of high order. To an intelligent community, they will offer no common-places on the general importance of Female Education, - the judicious and well-principled training of those who are to make the first and most lasting impressions on the mind of a coming age. But they may consistently inquire, whether any full or fair share of support has been afforded to this branch of Education, as compared with that of our young men? Whether some ungentle slumbers have not come over our Southern patriotism here? Their own estimate of the female mind is in accordance with that of Dr. Paley, - equal in [all essential] rights, nearly equal in faculties with those of men. Another great writer gives the superiority in a rapid and useful association of ideas to women; and notices the fact (chiefly arising from this faculty) of their occasional superiority in epistolary writing, in compositions that require ease of thought and expression, and in the facility with which they contract and lose habits and accommodate themselves to new situations. These are elements of character which no thoughtful parent or instructor can safely disregard. We base upon them the present attempt to unite all that is useful in female acquirements with reasonable accomplishments; to give a domestic, kind, and firm tone to the entire discipline of the mind, in...
