Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from A Memoir of the Life and Ministry of Ann Freeman The object of my dear wife s writing, and of my publishing the following account, was to testify of the grace of Jesus Christ; that those who are seeking the full liberty of the Gospel, may be encouraged to persevere; and to stir up the pure mind in all, by setting forth this declaration of the sufficiency of the blood of Jesus Christ to cleanse from all sin. Those whose opinions differ with regard to doctrine and worship, will, most likely, conceive different sentiments with regard to the subject of these memoirs; but those who bring it in general, and in each particular, to the sure touchstone, the witness of the Spirit of God, will judge righteous judgment: such having true discernment, according to the measure of the gift of Christ received. She had the things of the kingdom of heaven opened, as she was prepared, by grace already given, to receive; and those convictions of the Spirit led her to cease from some things highly esteemed among men. Herein she changed not her religion; but acted according to what she had professed, from her first becoming decided to serve the Lord: namely, to do His will, as He revealed, or made it known to her. For what she ceased from, were not the things of the Spirit received from Christ, but the traditions and usages of man; who, by opinions of the meaning of the Spirit in the Holy Scripture, did now require what the Spirit of Truth (as she believed) witnessed against, as innovation or departure from the simplicity of truth. And when...
